

Claude GRENOT

Son of Antoine and Jeanne DUBELLAY

Born in 1724

AND LXVIII 650 On 23.05.1733 Inventory after death before Claude Boivin

and Etienne-Charles Tournois

At the request of Jeanne DUBELLAY, widow of Antoine GRENOT, bourgeois of Paris, residing on rue de la Pelleterie, parish of St Jacques-de-la-Boucherie, both in her name due to the community of property and as guardian of her minor children; Antoine

17 years old, Charles 16 years old, and Claude GRENOT 9 years old, in the presence of Jean RENOUARD, perfumer, substitute guardian. Sentence homologated at Châtelet on the 21st of the present month registered in the register of MENARD, clerk of the civil chamber.

House belonging to Monsieur MELAN, secretary of the king, and to Antoine LAISNÉ.

Two rooms and three bedrooms. Family of average condition.