THE VICTIM OF A BRUTAL ASSAULT

Mrs. M. J. O'Connell Struck Down Saturday Night

ASSAILANT MAKES ESCAPE

Victim Was Walking on West Sixth Street Near Montcalm Park When Man Stepped from Darkness and Felled Her—Neighbors Want to Act As Special Policemen

Mrs. Michael J. O'Connell of No. 68 Bronson street, was the victim of an unprovoked and brutal assault at about 10:30 Saturday evening, when she was walking along West Sixth, between Van Buren and Schuyler streets. As she passed the north end of the Montcalm Park grounds, where the heavy shade trees make it exceedingly dark, an unknown man stepped out from behind the iron fence and without any word of warning struck her a heavy blow in the face which felled her to the ground. As the man struck she screamed and continued her shrieks until the entire neighborhood was aroused. Several men in the neighborhood were on the scene within a few seconds of the attack, coming from several different directions but caught no sight of the assailant.

A hasty search was made of the immediate vicinity but no trace of the man could be found.

In the meantime the police had been summoned and Officers McGrath and Gillen arrived within a short time but their efforts were also useless. From all indications it is believed that the assailant scaled the iron fence surrounding Montcalm Park, an easy thing for an active man, and hid in the crop of buckwheat, which is nearly three feet high, until the attention of the searchers was centered around the woman, when he made his escape across the field toward the Schuyler street side. A trampled track from the fence near where the assault occurred leading to the Schuyler street end tends to confirm this idea.

It is also reported that a half hour previous to this assault a girl was seized by a man at a point almost directly across the road but she escaped his grasp and got away. This latter matter was not reported to the police and the identity of the girl could not be learned.

Mrs. O'Connell had had a woman friend at her home earlier in the evening who was nervous about going alone through this section of the city so Mrs. O'Connell offered to walk part way home with her. She was returning along Sixth street when she was struck. Besides a heavy blow in the face she was made partially hysterical for a short time but was able to walk home, escorted by friends. Her husband, who had been downtown, came along Van Buren street a few moments after the assault had happened and, seeing the crowd, inquired what had happened. He was thoroughly aroused when he heard of the attack made upon his wife.

This is not the first occasion, by any means, that women have been attacked in this particular section and there has been more or less disorder of various kinds during the entire spring, and even last fall and summer. The neighbors are now thoroughly aroused and, realizing that they are at a considerable distance from the police station and the protection it might give, and also that with the small police force it is impossible to have men patrolling residential sections like this, are starting a movement to have several residents appointed special policemen to see if the lawlessness can not be cleaned out by concerted action. It is probable that at the next meeting of the Department of Fire and Police such a petition will be presented.

TO TAKE MOVIES OF THE ENTIRE CITY

UNITED STATES MOTION PICTURE COMPANY HAS REPRESENTATIVE HERE READY TO START WORK

C. S. Eddy, managing director of the United States Motion Picture Company, arrived in town this morning with a troupe of several motion picture artists and all of the necessary apparatus for taking a picture which will be known as Miss Prosperity and Progress in Oswego. He will use his own trained people for some of the principal parts, but will depend on the people of Oswego to furnish both the actors and action in most of the scenes. His idea is to stage a story here which will show Oswego in all its beauty and will include the entire city, as far as it is possible, showing its industrial side, social side, its water facilities, and its residential section.

It is a new idea and one which has been carried on with complete success in a number of the cities of the country. The company has just come from Lockport, where it put on a similar stunt and made good with every one in the place. As has been said it will be up to the people to make Oswego look busy during the scenes taking and Mr. Eddy says that in one scene in Lockport he had 15,000 people in front of the camera and he hopes Oswego can do better with a considerably larger population. If every man, woman and child in the city does not get into the picture it will be his or her own fault. More details of the entire affair will be given from time to time.

REV. E. F. RIPPEY ACCEPTS CALL

WILL BE PASTOR OF THE FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH—HAS BEEN SERIOUSLY ILL WITH PNEUMONIA

The pastoral supply committee of the First Presbyterian church received a telegram late Saturday from the Rev. E. Floyd Rippey of Mount Vernon, N. Y., formally accepting the call recently extended to him to become pastor of the church.

Soon after receiving the call, the Rev. Mr. Rippey was stricken with pneumonia, from which his recovery now seems assured. As soon as he became convalescent, he wired his acceptance.

The pastorate of the First Presbyterian church has been vacant ever since the Rev. C. Lansing Seymour, who was ordained and installed here in 1912, resigned to become pastor of the Elmwood Presbyterian church in Syracuse over a year ago. The Rev. Mr. Rippey is acceptable to the members of the church without exception, and indications point to a successful pastorate. He will take up his duties in the fall.

The services yesterday were conducted by a Mr. Davis, a theological student from Auburn.
