

Disambiguation regarding versions of a photographic image of Alexander Mackenzie formerly represented as being a photo of Alexander Squire Fletcher.

Text of the comments by the thumbnail image on Alexander Squire Fletcher's page:

This image is not Alexander Squire Fletcher, but is Alexander Mackenzie, 2nd Prime Minister of Canada. The original image received had poor text overlaid on the image, indicating it was a photo of Alexander Squire Fletcher and Doug Couch, the site owner at adkinshorton.net (and genealogy.adkinshorton.net) made this enhanced version with border framing and nicer text of his name...which unfortunately is not the correct person's name. Various versions of this enhanced image are extant on the Internet. Clicking on the adjacent thumbnail image now leads to a PDF giving some additional disambiguation regarding this image.

Charles Taws, who works at the museum in Bowmanville, Ontario, Canada, provided the welcome information about this discrepancy. Below are some versions of the erroneously labeled image, followed by some images of Alexander Mackenzie.
